Registration Preparation

Graduate Students

The fall 1999 on-line registration and drop/add period for all graduate students will continue through September 9.

Graduate students in GSA&S, CGSOM, GSOE, GSON, and GSSW who have registered before August 15, 1999, will have had their registration fee waived. This waiver only applies to those students who complete their registration by August 15. Students who add courses after August 15 will be charged the $15 registration fee.

Students registered for Doctoral Continuation in the spring will be registered for the fall unless they graduate in May or are enrolled in programs that require departmental permission. Those students whose departments require permission need to obtain a departmental override. Graduate students using School of Education teaching vouchers should see Patricia O’Kane in the Office of the Assistant Dean for Students and Outreach.

Special Students who have not applied to a degree program or who have applied but have not yet been accepted and wish to take graduate level courses must apply as special students to the appropriate graduate school. This policy also applies to students who wish to take graduate level courses using teaching vouchers and have not applied or been accepted into a graduate school at Boston College. Those who have previously taken courses using vouchers should contact the Admission Offices to be readmitted.

Undergraduate Students

The fall 1999 registration and drop/add period for undergraduates will continue through September 9. Drop/adds after September 9 must be approved by the appropriate department/dean’s office.

Registration Procedures

Graduate and undergraduate students register and drop/add using either the U-View Plus system—available from any computer terminal or microcomputer with a network (EagleNet) connection or with a dialup (modem) connection to BC’s administrative mainframe computer—or the U-Dial voice-response system. U-Dial can be accessed from a touch-tone telephone by dialing 617-552-8800. Instructions for accessing U-View Plus are posted in the terminal carrels in O’Neill 248 and in the Student Learning and Support Center in O’Neill 250. The registration systems will be available seven days a week (with exceptions) until 11:00 P.M. through September 9.

All students may drop/add any time after they have registered. Drop/adds after September 9 must be approved by the appropriate department/Dean’s Office.

Grades by Phone

Dial 617-552-8801 to access your grades by phone. The system is available from 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. Have your Eagle Number and Personal Identification Number (PIN) ready and follow the voice prompts. The system will speak your grades for the last term. The grades will only be read once so have a pencil ready.

Registration Information

Course Descriptions

Access the Office of Student Services’ Web site for course descriptions at the following address: <http://www.bc.edu/courses>. Use the Schedule of Courses on the Web to determine the index and section numbers, and the meeting time of each course.

You may also browse courses on U-View Plus by using the “C” option, which will access both fall and spring semester courses, or search for courses by instructor name, by course title, and by open courses (not closed or canceled).

Course Restrictions/Closed Courses

An asterisk (*) next to a course indicates a restriction. The specific restriction is printed underneath the course. Courses may be restricted by school (e.g., For Education Only), by degree (e.g., For Doctoral Students Only), or by major (e.g., For Economics Majors Only). Other courses, or sections of courses, may be held by the department so that they are unavailable during certain periods of registration. Some courses (including all graduate courses) may be available to undergraduates with department permission only.

Note: If you are planning to change your major, be sure to check the General Information section for instructions.

Overrides

In exceptional cases, a department may decide to override a course restriction. If you wish to obtain an override for a course that was closed or restricted when you registered, see the department. If the department chairperson or assistant decides to allow you to register for the course, he or she will give you an Approval/Override form. The form must be stamped in the appropriate section: Open/Restricted overrides school, major, degree and department restrictions; Override for a Closed Course overrides all restrictions and size limits for closed courses. In rare cases you may need to obtain permission to override a corequisite or to register for two courses that conflict in time. In those cases the Approval for Time Conflict must be signed.

If you obtain an override for a restricted or closed course take the form to Lyons Hall after you have registered. You cannot process overrides through U-Dial or U-View Plus.

Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON, who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes.

Registration Holds

If you have an outstanding balance on your student account, are missing a transcript from a university you attended previously, or have failed to submit proof of immunization to the Health Services Office, a hold may be placed on your registration. If a registration hold message appears on the screen, you must see the appropriate office to resolve the situation before you can register.

Immunization Requirement

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts requires that all full-time college students show proof of immunization against measles (2 doses), mumps, rubella, diphtheria, tetanus and tuberculosis (tuberculosis test within the past 2 years). If you have not submitted the Immunization Verification form you must do so before registering. Students who fail to provide proof of immunization by September 30 will be charged a $50.00 administrative processing fee, which will be reflected on their October bill, and will not be permitted to register for their second semester courses at Boston College. To obtain an Immunization Verification form contact Health Services at 617-552-3225 in Cushing Hall.

Students whose personal religious beliefs forbid immunization or who can provide physician’s documentation that immunizations should not be given because of pre-existing medical problems should contact Health Services.

Massachusetts Medical Insurance

Commonwealth of Massachusetts Law has mandated that all students, graduate and undergraduate, taking at least 75 percent of full-time credit hours must be covered by medical insurance providing a specified minimum coverage. Determination of whether or not a graduate student is required to enroll in the insurance program is based strictly on the actual number of credits for which the student is registered each semester. Graduate students in the Schools of Social Work, Management, and Advancing Studies who register for 9 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time. Graduate students in the Schools of Arts and Sciences, Nursing and Education who register for 7 or more credits are considered 75 percent of full-time.

Boston College will offer all students—graduate and undergraduate—the option of participating in the plan offered at the University or submitting a waiver. The details of the University’s Insurance plan are available on the U-View system or on the World Wide Web at agora.bc.edu. Students may waive the BC insurance plan by completing the electronic waiver form on U-View or on the World Wide Web. Students under the age of 18 are required to submit a written waiver form with the signature of their parent/guardian. This form is available for download on the Web at www.bc.edu/studentsservices. The waiver must be completed and submitted by October 8, 1999, for the fall semester and by February 11, 2000, for spring semester. Students who do not complete a waiver by the due dates will be enrolled and billed for the BC plan.

Students registering for less than 75 percent of a full-time course load who wish to enroll in the insurance plan must be in a degree-granting program. Such students enroll directly with the insurance company using the part-time enrollment form available at the Boston College Health Services department in Cushing Hall, at Walter W. Sussenguth and Associates or on the Web. The coverage becomes effective upon receipt of the application and payment by the insurer if received after the due dates above.

Note: For insurance purposes students registered for 0 credits (e.g., Doctoral Continuation, Interim Study) are considered part-time and must enroll directly with the insurance company. If you have questions concerning student enrollment, waivers or billing contact the Office of Student Services at 617-552-3300.

Billing Information

These restrictions include denied access to Housing and the Athletic Complex, use of the Meal Plan, and the ability to drop and add courses and to cash checks at the Cashier’s Office. In severe cases, students will be withdrawn from the University. In addition, a $100 late payment fee will be assessed on any account that is not resolved by the due dates. Special Programs

The Program for the Study of Faith, Peace and Justice

This program offers students the opportunity to examine and intensify their faith commitments and to explore the significance of these commitments for the task of bringing about just and peaceful solutions to national and international problems. The Program sponsors courses, campus events, and special activities for its participants.

A&S or CSOM students who meet the academic requirements of the Program may minor in Faith, Peace, and Justice Studies. Alternatively, students may choose to concentrate on faith, peace, and justice concerns within their major field. In either case the same pattern applies, (i.e., an introductory course, UN 160 The Challenge of Justice, four intermediate courses taken with the advice and consent of the Director, and finally, UN 590 the Senior Seminar Project).

Campus events include speakers, religious ceremonies, and student-faculty conferences and less formal exchanges on issues of faith, peace, and justice. Special activities for participants of the Program include retreats, service days, lectures, discussions and socials.

For further information, please contact Prof. Matthew Mullane, Carney 417, 617-552-3886.

PULSE Program

The PULSE Program provides students with the opportunity to explore questions of philosophy, theology and other disciplines in courses which incorporate field work experience in one of Boston’s many social service organizations. Through the combination of academic reflection and community service, students are provided with a framework for understanding the intimate relationship between theory and practice.

Enrollment in the course Person and Social Responsibility is one of the options for fulfilling the Core requirement in Philosophy and Theology. In light of classic philosophical and theological texts, social science, fiction, and poetry, PULSE students address topics such as the relationship of self and society, the nature of community, the mystery of suffering and the practical difficulties of developing a just society, urbanism, homelessness and alienation. PULSE students are challenged to investigate the insights offered by their readings in relation to their service work. Enrollment in the core level PULSE course is limited to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Spots in the course are very limited and are allocated on a first-come first served basis.

For those students who want to continue their experience with the PULSE program or who were unable to enroll in the Core level class, several elective courses are offered. A philosophy and English course entitled Stories and Service looks at topics such as urbanism, homelessness, and alienation through texts by social scientists, novelists, philosophers, and poets. Other PULSE elective course titles are Values in Social Service and Health Care and Boston: An Urban Analysis.

All PULSE courses require a ten to twelve hour per week commitment to service. Carefully selected field placements in youth work, the correctional system, emergency shelters, AIDS and HIV services, legal and community advocacy, and literacy programs become the context in which students forge a critical and compassionate perspective both on society and on themselves.

University Capstone Courses

Reserved for seniors and second-semester juniors only, the Capstone program is designed to cap off college by facing the questions of life after graduation. The Capstone Seminars (UN 500-525) directly address the hopes and anxieties that seniors face but seldom find treated in traditional courses. They relate the life and learning of the past four years to the life and learning ahead. The Capstone Seminars take seriously the struggle to integrate four crucial areas of life: work, relationships, free time, and the search for the purpose of existence.

Ask some inevitable questions now, not later. How did my education prepare me to live? With everything I want to do, what will I have to compromise? How can I balance my career and my family? Can I find work with a higher meaning than my income?

Special features of the course:

- Faculty from various departments
- Each section limited to 15-20
- Class meetings held in leisurely, informal settings
- Innovative teaching methods, such as keeping a journal, interdisciplinary reading, guest speakers from professional life
- Capstone Seminars satisfy major requirements in certain departments.

To register for a Capstone Seminar

You must be a senior or a second-semester junior to take the course. Different Capstone Seminars will be offered each semester. All Seminars are interdisciplinary: you may register for any one of the Seminars as a University (UN) course. If you find a particular Seminar closed, try to register under the cross-listed number (e.g., if UN 523 is closed, try to register for the class as TH 523, and vice versa). The Seminar can count as an elective for all students. For majors in English, Philosophy, and Theology, it can satisfy the major requirements if the student takes a seminar as cross-listed in the department of his/her major. Students are reminded that several Capstone seminars are cross-listed, both as University courses with a UN number and also as courses in the department of the professor offering the course. In case a course is closed be sure to check whether there is space under its cross-listed number.

Students must also understand the following rule:

NB: No student may take more than one Capstone seminar during his/her undergraduate years. Thus, you may not take two Capstone courses in one semester or in two different semesters. This is true whether the course is listed under a UN number or as course in a specific department. If a second Capstone course appears on your record, it will be removed. This could make you ineligible for graduation.

Economics

EC 307 Contract Theory (Fall: 3)

Prerequisites: EC 201 (203) and Calculus

Many economic exchanges are characterized by informational asymmetries between the parties; for instance, a seller may have more information about the quality of the good it sells than the buyer. Contract theory provides a set of tools to analyze such situations. After a general introduction to basic theory, the course will cover a number of applications, including health insurance, the internal organization of firms, regulation, and topics in industrial organization.

EN 081.08 Literary Themes: The Stranger in Literature (Fall: 3)

In this course, we will pay particular but not exclusive attention to the ways in which strangers are represented in the selected texts. We will consider such questions as the following: What constitutes a stranger? How are the strangers in our texts treated? Why are they treated as they are? What role(s) does the stranger play in each of the individual texts we are reading?

These are only some of the questions we might ask. In fact, you will be responsible for raising questions of your own and for participating in class discussions about them. Texts include The Odyssey, Othello, Great Expectations, Joe Turner's Come and Gone (August Wilson).

Jeff Westover

EN 131.01: Studies in Poetry (Fall:3)

Poetry presents itself to us as an uncanny mix of the familiar (our everyday language) and the inscrutable (meter, metaphor, private meaning). This section of Studies in Poetry will focus on three poets whose work can be read as an argument between feeling (private) and meaning (public). We will study the history of poetic form in Shakespeare's Sonnets, creative process in the making of T.S. Eliot's long poem The Waste Land, and the relationship between art and life in Elizabeth Bishop's Complete Poems. Our final project will involve choosing a poem from the Heaney anthology Rattle Bag to evaluate and interpret, using class discussion and argument to defend your choice. Requirements: four essays; occasional in-class writing and exercises in formal analysis; a revision of one paper in place of a final examination.

Ellen Castle

EN 594.01 Adv. Creative Nonfiction: Literary Journalism (Fall: 3)

This workshop will focus on the craft of using literary techniques in a wide range of journalistic modes. We will look at the work of such writers as John McPhee, Ian Frazier, Diane Ackerman and Tracy Kidder.

Student work will be discussed in both workshops and conferences and can include: personal essays, immersion journalism, researched argumentative essays and magazine-style features. Students will complete and polish several shorter pieces and one longer feature-length article, all with the goal of publication. Enrollment is limited to 15.

Edward Hardy

EN 792 Critical Approaches to the Gothic (Fall: 3)

Participants will consider classic issues about Gothic fiction. How and why does it arouse the pleasure of terror? What is its relationship to popular and high culture? To enlightenment, reason, and religion? But a major emphasis will fall on contemporary issues about the Gothic. We'll ask the questions current in discourse about all literary objects. How do these works shed light on such cultural issues as nation-making and ethnicity, on gender and sexuality, of race and the other, on such fictions of coherence as the self and its development, on psychoanalytical figurations of the mother or processes of repression and retrieval, loss, lack and plenitude. We'll also be concerned with the history of this unstable genre, its relationship with writing and legibility, with history and romance, and its permutations in adjacent popular culture genres like science fiction and crime fiction. Anticipate reading: texts will include Austen's Northanger Abbey, Maturin's Melmoth The Wanderer, Stoker's Dracula, Stevenson's Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, James' The Turn of the Screw, Jackson's The Haunting of Hill House, Blatty's The Exorcist, Rice's Interview with the Vampire and King's Rose Madder. One short and one longer paper.

Sergio Serulnikov

HS 286 The American Irish, 1700-1855 (Fall: 3)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

Between 1700 and 1855, some 3.5 million Irish men, women, and children crossed the Atlantic to settle in North America. This vast movement of people was of great historical significance on both sides of the Atlantic: it played a fundamental role in the shaping of modern Ireland, and it determined in no small measure the economic, political and cultural development of the United States in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. This course, the first half of a two semester survey, will examine the history of this transatlantic migration in terms of the social, economic, political, and cultural history of the Irish in both Ireland and the United States. Focus will be on continuity and change in a transatlantic setting.

Kevin Kenny

HS 529 Interpretations of Capitalism (Fall: 3)

Prerequisite: Any two semesters of HS 001 through HS 094

With the end of the Cold War and the extraordinary complications of a multi-power world, serious people continue trying to understand capitalism as one dominant ideology of the past two centuries. We will read some of capitalism's better known interpretations from an enormous body of literature, interpretations from several distinct perspectives. It will also be important for you to recognize the forms of capitalism that you carry in yourself. Course readings provide interpretations that interact with the capitalist values and perceptions that we bring with us.

TH 694 Empowering Catechetical Leaders (Fall/Spring: 3)

IREPM On-Line Course

The General Directory for Catechizes emphasizes how "any form of pastoral activity is placed at risk if it does not rely on truly competent and trained personnel" (GDC, #234). Whether one is new to the ministry of Catechetical leadership or a seasoned veteran, the need for ongoing formation and education is vital. This course provides an opportunity to gather a community of Catechetical leaders through the use of internet technology. Together students will read and discuss some of the key texts that are essential to effective Catechetical leadership in both parish and school settings. The nature of an on-line course allows for a great deal of flexibility in taking the course. While a commitment to the readings, the assignments, and the on-line conversation is required, students are free to schedule their time to suit their professional and personal commitments. This course is an academic year course and the 3 credits will be posted at the end of spring semester.

Michael Corso-Instructor

Thomas Groome-Consultant

TH 731 Research and Writing in Pastoral Theology will still be offered in spring 2000 but will not be offered in fall 1999.

TH 838 Social Work and Pastoral Ministry Seminar: Toward Social Transformation (Spring: 3)

Cross listed with SW830

Required for students in the Dual M.S.W./M.A. program and open to other graduate students.

Significant changes in contemporary culture, as well as in the funding and priorities of social service agencies, present new challenges to social workers and pastoral ministers. Of paramount importance is the development of interdisciplinary modes of analysis to reflect systematically and critically on the building of a just and caring society, in relationship to foundational values drawn from professional codes of ethics as well as from the traditions of religion and civil society. Required for students in Dual M.S.W./M.A. program and open to other graduate students.

TH 914 Race, Class, Gender in Faith (Spring: 3)

IREPM On -Line Course

Emerging scholarship in cultural studies has begun to develop a more adequate description of the ways in which race, class and gender are constructed within the North American context. That scholarship is in turn reflected in new pedagogical and theological proposals that seek to enable people to encounter difference in creative and transformative ways. This on-line asynchronous course seeks to highlight such proposals while at the same time supporting religious professionals in discerning their own embeddedness in various structures of oppression and engaging that location constructively.

Sociology

SC 036. 01 Consumer Society and Everyday Life (Fall: 3)

This class explores the emergence and development of contemporary American consumer society with an emphasis on the relation between economic practices and culture. We examine the social, economic, technical and cultural roots of mass production, the large-scale effects of this development on the American economy and culture generally, as well as the ways in which it has effected the mundane routines of everyday life in the U.S. over the course of the 20th century. As part of this, we examine the role of marketing and advertising in creating individuals as consumers, and the impact of this across all domains of everyday life. More specifically, we study the processes of commodification and consumption as they relate to class, gender, race, age, politics and the globalization of the economy and culture.

Julie Manga

SC 092.03 Peace or War? (Fall: 3)

In this course, we will be attempting to answer, sociologically, the question Peace or War? We will begin with an overview of some of the theories and thoughts regarding war and peace. We will then start applying these concepts to actual events, beginning with the recent U.S./UN conflict in Kosovo. Some of the topics we will encounter will be the global effects of the Cold War, both politically and socially, the experience of war by individuals, and the impact of social movements. A continuing theme throughout the course will be American military involvement in the world since the close of World War II. To accomplish this, we will work backwards from the present to the origins of the Cold War. Throughout the course, we will continually explore why war or peace was chosen through examining both historical and theoretical literatures. The final section of the course will revisit the question of War or Peace? and attempt to address this issue from the sociological perspective. Students' experiences will be brought into the classroom analysis through papers, activities, and discussions.

Matthew Gregory

SC133.01 Women, Crime and the Law (Fall: 3)

This course will introduce students to a range of topics and issues pertaining to the involvement of women and the law. I use the word law in a broad context. Throughout the course we will examine the experiences of women in society in general, and in the legal and criminal justice system specifically. Some questions that undergird our exploration of women and the law are how does the social, economic and political structures impact women who vary according to race, class and sexual orientation. Topics to be discussed include: women as offenders, pornography, prostitution, substance abuse during pregnancy, violence against women, incarceration, workplace equality, and sexual orientation. Juxtaposing these issues is how the legal sphere has become more accessible to women as judicial participants and architects of case law and legal theory.

The course begins by providing a historical perspective that better informs our understanding of the selected topics and furthers our appreciation of the challenges women continue to face in contemporary society. Next, we will examine theoretical approaches to gender and sociological theories of female criminality. The underlying theme explores the relationship between law, gender, race and equality. Although differences of opinion exist, feminist legal theorists are unified by their pivotal belief that society is patriarchal, structured and dominated by men. As such the writings illustrate the dual objectives of feminist legal theory. This being to examine and evaluate how the law perpetuates women's position in patriarchal society yet simultaneously provides a transformative element in its exploration of means to eliminate patriarchy.

Patricia Bergin

SC562 Media, Culture and Society (Spring: 3)

This seminar focuses on the central role of media in contemporary society. We will examine key perspectives regarding the impact of media on culture and society, assessing the strengths and weaknesses of each as they relate to empirical analysis of various media sites in contemporary society. Perspectives we will cover include: critical theory, cultural studies, feminist theory and post-structuralist theory. We will focus on the complex relationships between cultural and political economy, individual practices and institutional structures, including the ways issues of race, gender, class and sexuality and addressed both explicitly and implicitly. We also examine the ways in which media are constitutive of everyday life and what we call our experience.

The class will be conducted in a seminar format. There will be substantial weekly reading of primary source material (both theoretical and empirical analyses). The major portion of the course will consist of student discussion of the issues and questions raised in weekly readings.

Theology

TH 349 Finding God: Jewish and Christian Responses (Fall: 3)

Beyond the dogmatic requirement of divine unity, Jewish theology has allowed great freedom to those seeking to find and understand God. This introductory course will survey various theological viewpoints about God, from the biblical period to the present time, covering such responses as theism, mysticism, religious naturalism, and religious humanism. Students will compare these Jewish responses with those of Christianity and/or their own religious heritages.

Rabbi Rifat Sonsino

TH 416 Saints and Sinners (Fall: 3)

This course will examine Christian spirituality in terms of its successes and near-misses. The emphasis will be on the experience of encountering God. The focus is on the various contexts that frame the story of grace and sin: cultural, historical, religious, and sexual. The material will include narratives from scripture, autobiographies, biographies, and literature. The aim is to view the theology of spirituality from the stories of those who take God's action in their lives seriously.

Howard Gray, S.J.

TH 510 On the Trinity (Spring: 3)

The goal of this course is to compare views of faith found in the Bible, Buddhism, patristic writers, modern thinkers, Newman, and mostly Aquinas. Is a stress on religious experience compatible with total respect for objective truth? What is the interaction between the affective and intellectual aspects of faith?

Schedule of Courses—Fall Semester 1999

Explanation of Course Numbers

The Boston College Course Number consists of seven characters. The first two characters (alphabetic prefix, e.g., “MA”) indicate the department or program offering the course; the last two characters indicate the section number. The middle three characters indicate the level of the course. When listing courses the entire seven-character symbol must be used as well as the four digit INDEX number which appears to the left of the course. For example: 9999 MA333.01.

Final Exam Information

All courses have scheduled exam times determined by the starting time of the course. The listing above shows standard class meeting time exam assignments for undergraduate courses. In general, common exams are held at 4:00. If a course does not fit exactly into a module, it assumes the module corresponding to the closest class meeting time. For example, a class meeting T TH 11 is assigned module 10 (T TH 10:30*). In situations where the non-standard time falls halfway between two modules, use the module for the later time. For example, a class meeting M W F 9:30 is assigned module 03 (M W F 10).

All graduate courses meeting once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 or later and meet once a week will have final exams on the first regular class day that occurs during the exam week. All graduate courses meeting more than once a week and undergraduate courses that start at 4:00 or later and meet more than once a week will have final exams on the class day that is earliest in the calendar week. For example, the final exam for a T TH 4pm class would be held Tuesday at 4:00. Exams will be held at the usual class meeting time and location unless otherwise posted on the exam schedule.

The meeting place for each exam, and exceptions or changes to the schedule will be posted outside the Office of Student Services, Lyons Hall, one week prior to the exam period. Exam information is also available on U-View.

If there is a storm during the examination period, there is the expectation that exams will be held as scheduled. In the very rare instance that the exam schedule is delayed or postponed due to inclement weather or other emergency situations, the first available of the following days will be used: The Sunday during the exam week, the afternoon of the last exam day, and the day after the last exam day. If rescheduling is necessary, announcements will be made on WBZ, WRKO, and WBMX, and on the Boston College INFO line (552-4636). For graduate and professional students, announcements concerning final exams will be made on the same radio stations and on 552-INFO. Students are responsible for attending final exams at the scheduled times. In addition, students should consider possible exam rescheduling when making travel plans at the end of the semester.

Students are expected to take no more than two final exams in any one day. If a student has three exams scheduled in one day and one of these is a common exam, it is the responsibility of the instructor holding the common exam to give a make-up exam. If a student has three regularly scheduled exams (this can happen if the student is taking a course that meets at 4:00 or later), the instructor teaching the course outside of the standard time blocks (8:00-3:00) should provide a make-up exam. In addition, if a student has a conflict between a common exam and a regularly scheduled late afternoon or evening course exam, the responsibility for a make-up lies with the instructor offering the common exam.

U-View via Modem

Modem Setup

- In your communications package, set your modem speed to the speed rated for your modem. The other settings remain the same: 8 bits, no parity, hardware handshake or flow control. Error correction should be turned off.

Logging On

- Use your communications software (Mac Terminal, ZTerm, Reflection, ProComm, YTerm, e.g.) to dial the modem pool number appropriate for your modem: 552 3020 for 2400 bps or LESS, 552 0999 for 4800 or GREATER. Long Distance dial: 1 617 552 3020 (or 1 617 552 0999). Use SPACES to separate the numbers!
- You should see CONNECT 2400/REL (speed varies by modem). You MAY have to press <RETURN> several times to establish a connection. Then you will see Servename for Quest/U-View is BCVMCMS.
- Press the <ENTER>or <RETURN> once or twice and you will see Enter Username>. Enter your BC username and press <RETURN>.
- You will see the prompt Type “C” Servename>. For U-View or Quest, type c then a space then BCVMCMS. NOTE: Typing 6100 and 8400 will NOT work.
- Press <RETURN>. On the blank line under Please enter a terminal id; prompt, type 1 for VT100, unless you know that your machine is otherwise.
- The BC screen will appear. Type your username on the Enter your Username, Eagle Number...: prompt and press <RETURN>. (You can use any of the listed options.)
- Tab once and type your PIN (Personal Identification Number) on the Enter Your PIN Number: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the APPLICATION MENU screen of UIS. Select the application you wish to use (e.g., UIS, QUEST) and type its corresponding number on the SELECTION=> prompt and press <RETURN>. (For U-View, type 1 for the UIS system.)
- You are now at the System menu for UIS. Your options will vary. Type the number for U-View (or other service) on the ENTER SELECTION line and press <RETURN>.

Logging Off

- If you are using UIS mail, return to its main menu. Type L on the ENTER YOUR CHOICE line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-Buy, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>. If you are using U-View, return to its main menu. Type L on the TYPE SELECTION HERE... line and press <RETURN>.
- The APPLICATION MENU screen will appear. Type L on the SELECTION=> line and press <RETURN>.
- You are now at the BC screen. Type Y on the Enter “Y” to disconnect: prompt and press <RETURN>.
- At the Type “C” Servename> prompt, type log to disconnect. “C” option on U-View Plus (View Courses) can now access both fall and spring courses.

U-View Plus

Instructions are posted in the Student Learning and Support Center and in O’Neill 248.

U-Dial

- Call the Boston College Voice Response Unit: 617-552-8800 If you are calling outside the 617 area code, be sure to dial 1 + 617 before 552-8800.
- Enter your Eagle Number or your social security number upon request.
- Enter your 5-digit personal information number (PIN).
- Once you have accessed the voice response unit, the tape will list the main menu of transactions. (Review the selections below to be sure you understand the differences between transactions.) The system will then request that you choose a transaction by pressing one of the following:

TO ADD A COURSE: If you wish to add a course, press 1 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the add transaction is completed.

TO DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop a course, press 2 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop transaction is completed.

TO ADD AND DROP A COURSE: If you wish to drop one course and then add one course, press 3 when prompted to do so and follow the instructions at each prompt until the drop/add transaction is completed. This transaction will not complete the drop unless you successfully add one course in its place; therefore, you shouldn’t worry when the drop transaction appears not to have gone through. This transaction should be used if you are changing the corequisite for a course (a lab or a discussion group).

TO CHECK THE STATUS OF A COURSE: If you wish to check quickly to see if a particular course is open, press 4 when prompted to do so. Then follow the instructions to check the status of the course.

TO LIST COURSES: Press 5 to hear the courses you are currently registered for or to confirm your transaction(s).

TO END CALL: Press 9 to disconnect from the Voice Response Unit. Be sure to listen carefully to instructions as you proceed with any transaction. If you make a mistake at any time, press * to start over.

Once you are familiar with the system, you can bypass the recorded message by entering the information requested at the beginning of the prompt.

Problems/Error Messages

You may encounter a problem or receive an error message while using the voice response unit.The most probable messages/problems and solutions are listed as follows.

Problem/MessageProbable Solution

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Can’t access system | Use a touch-tone phone not a rotary phone, or try from another phone. Your phone may be malfunctioning. |
| 2. System not available | You are calling outside the hours 8:00 A.M. to 11:00 P.M. seven days a week. Please call during U-Dial hours. OR the system is experiencing unscheduled downtime. Please call back in 15 minutes. |
| 3. Busy Signal | The system’s incoming telephone lines are all in use. Try again later. |
| 4. System does not answer | The Voice Response Unit is not functioning. Try again later. |
| 5. Wrong ID | Check to make sure that you are inputting your Eagle or social security number correctly. |
| 6. Wrong PIN | Check to make sure that you are inputting your PIN correctly. |
| 7. Wrong index numbers | Check to make sure that you are inputting the correct 4-digit index number, not the course number (e.g., 9999 rather than EN999.09). Refer to the Schedule of Courses for index numbers. |
| 8. Time Conflict message | Check the Schedule of Courses or the Course Status List available on U-View Plus . If there is still a problem, there may have been a time change. What is on the computer is correct since it is the most up-to-date. |
| 9. The course you want is <ul style="list-style-type: none">• a sixth course• restricted to a major or school• closed or requires department | Students in A&S, CSOM, and SON who maintain a 3.00 GPA, may add a sixth course on-line (up to 20 credits) during the first week of classes. You must get the appropriate departmental approval to be allowed to override these restrictions. For all these restrictions, see the department. If they issue an override, obtain the necessary stamp(s) and/or signature(s) and bring the approved form to Lyons Hall by 4:30 P.M. on September 9. |

If the above does not resolve your problem, or if you have a difficult problem, call 617-552-3300 during business hours, Monday-Friday 8:45 A.M. to 4:45 P.M.

Connecting To UIS via an Eaglenet Connection

TN3270 on the Macintosh

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked Macintosh to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as Boston College, UIS or QUEST systems in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

- Double-click on the TN3270 icon. (Figure 1)

Logging on to UIS

- Choose Open Connection from the File menu. (Figure 2)
- Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU in the Session name box and click on the OK button.(Figure 3)
- The UIS Login screen will appear. (Figure 4) Type your username and the <TAB> key. If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory. (Your username is on the last line of your personal information, before the colon. Ex.: USERJOE:USERJOE@HERMES.BC.EDU; USERJOE is the username.)
- Type your Personal Identification Number at the PIN: prompt and press <RETURN/ENTER>. If you have forgotten your PIN, you must go to the HELP Center, Gasson 12, or the O’Neill Computing Facility in person and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.
- You are now at the main screen of B.C.’s UIS system.

Shortcut to UIS

- If you mainly log on to BC’s UIS System, you can automatically advance to the login screen and skip the Open Connection and Session name boxes.
- Within the TN3270 folder, you will see two documents: “UIS System/Color” and ‘UIS System/B&W’. (Figures 5 & 6) If you double-click on either of these documents, you will immediately advance to the Username: prompt. (Figure 4)
- If you have a color monitor, double-click on the ‘UIS System/Color’ icon. If you have a black and white (or ‘greytone’) monitor double-click on the ‘UIS System/B&W’ icon.

Telnet Users

- To make a connection choose Open Session from the File menu. Type BCVMCMS.BC.EDU as the Session name.
- Click ok

TN3270 on the IBM

TN3270 is a software tool that allows your networked IBM to establish ‘terminal sessions’ with IBM mainframe computers such as the Boston College UIS System or the QUEST system in order to access U-View or Quest.

Starting TN3270

Double-click on the TN3270 icon. (Figure 1) It is located in the PC/TCP Applications window located in your Program Manager.

Logging on to UIS

- Once you have double-clicked on the TN3270 icon, you will see the Open dialog. (Figure 2) If this is your first time using this program, the Sessions Available: box will be blank.
- NOTE: The programs TNVT and TN3270 use the same dialogs, so if you save a session in TNVT and then open TN3270, you will see it in the Sessions Available box as well.
- Click on the Cancel button. You will now see a blank screen. Choose New... from the Session menu at the top of your screen.
- You will now see the New dialog. (Figure 3) Type bcvmcms.bc.edu in the Host Name or IP Address: box and click on the Connect button.
- You will see a message, Trying to connect to bcvmcms.bc.edu then Entering 3270 mode in the lower left corner of your screen. The BC screen will now appear. (Figure 4) Follow the on-screen instructions. If you do not know your username, consult your Communications Directory. If you have forgotten your PIN (Personal Identification Number), you must go to the HELP Center in person or the O’Neill Computing Facility and present your valid Boston College ID. An authorized person will then look it up.

Saving a Session

(“shortcuts” to connect to a host)

Boston College’s University Information System (UIS) is being used for this example. You can save any other session to any other host in the same way.

- Open a connection to UIS or any other Host computer.
- Once you are through, log out of UIS as you normally do. Choose Close from the Session menu.
- You will now see the TN3270 dialog asking you if you want to save this session. Click on Yes. (Figure 5)
- You will now see the Save As dialog box. (Figure 6) Type UIS or bcvmcms (matter of preference) in the New Session Name box. Click on the Save button.
